Report of Maximum Allowable Rents (MARs) and Change in MARs as of September 1, 2023

6/14/2023

MRD PROPERTIES ONE LLC
2632 WILSHIRE BLVD., #874
SANTA MONICA, CA 90403

On June 8, 2023, the Rent Control Board announced the 2023 general adjustment of 2.80% and established a maximum increase of $67. This report and enclosed documents provide guidance for the lawful implementation of the 2023 general adjustment for eligible units.

The table on the reverse lists information from the Rent Control Board's records. The first column identifies each unit on the property. The third column (1 Adjusted MAR) lists the Maximum Allowable Rent (MAR) to which the 2023 general adjustment (GA) may be applied, if the unit is eligible. The fourth and fifth columns list the 2023 GA and the new MAR after the 2.80% GA (maximum $67) is applied. The columns marked 1, 2 and 3 correspond with lines numbered 1, 2 and 3 on the enclosed Notice of Change in Terms of Tenancy form.

Pursuant to the amendment in the Rent Control Law resulting from the passage of Measure RC in November 2022, if a unit was eligible for last year's GA, the 2023 GA will be applied to the MAR that was in effect on August 31, 2022 plus 3% (maximum $70). This is the amount shown in the Adjusted MAR column, and it may be different from the rent you are currently collecting depending on how the 2022 GA and Adjusted GA were implemented.

Units are not eligible for the 2023 GA if: (1) the unit was rented on or after September 1, 2022; (2) a decision issued by the Rent Control Board stated the unit was not eligible for this year's GA; (3) there are outstanding citations for serious code violations; (4) a court judgment was issued based on unpaid registration fees; or (5) you did not declare on the Tenancy Registration form that you gave the tenant the Rent Control Information Sheet at the start of their tenancy (a requirement for all tenancies beginning July 31, 2017 and after). Units not eligible for the GA are indicated by "N/E" in the September 1, 2023 GA column.

Please review the Market Rate Established column to confirm you have registered the most recent tenancy for each unit. If the tenancy started on or after January 1, 1999 and was registered with the Board, the Market Rate Established date will match the date the current tenant moved into the unit. If it does not, the tenancy has not been registered. If the current tenancy has not been registered, please do so as soon as possible. The MAR for a unit cannot be increased by the GA until the current tenancy has been registered. If Market Rate Established is blank, our records indicate a tenancy that started before January 1, 1999.

This report reflects Board records but is not a rent certification. Call the Rent Control office if you have any questions.
